Synopsis:

A new comedy web series about artists who don't have the talent to "make it" or the sense to give up...

Dave Van Gogh was a 'starving actor' for thirteen-point-five years. After landing a contracted long-term commercial role as the face of Stay Strong Condoms, he bought a house in an L.A. suburb and opened his doors to starving artists trying to make it in Hollywood. Now breaking into a new career path, Dave started a management company, Winners Talent, and represents each of his tenants as their manager and life coach. These tenants, whom Dave calls his "Winners", include an array of colorful characters: a lazy actor (Ty), a talentless pageant queen (Sophia), an awkward comedienne (Liz), an aspiring Sci-Fi writer/blogger (Nathan), and a "slash" (Porter). The series follows these characters as they try to make it in Hollywood, and how they interact as roommates.
