Distribution

"Is that a banana in your pocket or are you happy to see me?"

Synopsis:

What's In My Pocket is a new Dating Game Show that asks contestants to find love in a stranger's pocket. In each round the suitors are represented by different colored jackets in which they have placed items in the pockets to describe themselves to our contestant. The contestant must blindly reach into each pocket, unaware of what foul thing may lurk inside. With the assistance of our not-so-helpful hosts, she attempts to determine what the items represent. Every round, a suitor is eliminated and kicked off the bus, until one remains. Hosts Matt Geiler and Leah Rose crack jokes and keep everyone laughing as the contestant reaches into a stranger's pocket for a chance at love and a cruise to the Mexican Riviera.
